

2021 Adversity & Resilience Symposium

Register
Now

Coping with Adversity as a Community & Securing Childhood for the Future

Free Virtual Event

Wednesday, April 14, 2021

9:00 a.m. — 3:45 p.m.

Registration:

<https://hopin.com/events/adversity-and-resilience-symposium>

Community members, educators, law enforcement, health care providers, and mental health providers learn more at this seminar:

- Suicide & Trauma
- Building connections to build resilience
- The influence of adverse experiences
- Healing from within

Kevin McNeil

Victim Advocate, Speaker, Author

Summoned: Why This is More Than Just a Job

Kevin McNeil delivers a motivating and compelling keynote presentation to individuals that care for abuse victims. He explains why helping abuse victims is more than something you get paid to do. He highlights how individuals that care for abuse victims are the key to positive change in the world.

Stan Sonu, MD MPH

Assistant Professor of Internal Medicine and Pediatrics at Emory University School of Medicine

Associate Program Director for the Emory J. Willis Hurst Internal Medicine Residency program at Grady Health System

Our Hidden Pandemic: Understanding the Long-Term Effects of Childhood Adversity and Envisioning Systems of Empathy

The Case for Systemic Empathy in Middle Georgia followed by a panel discussion led by Dr. Sonu with Bibb County Community Leaders

This Program is supported in part by the Children's Advocacy Centers of Georgia, Inc. and the Department of Human Services (DHS) - Division of Family and Children Services (DFCS) through appropriations from the Georgia General Assembly.