Robert Nesbit, M.D. (left), will give the keynote address at the 14th History of Medicine Symposium on February 14. Fans of medical history in the Macon medical community, residents and students also participate.

Dr Nesbit is emeritus professor of surgery at the Georgia Health Sciences University in Augusta. Retired from active practice, Dr Nesbit continues to be active in medical education, particularly in GHSU's virtual patient projects. He is Secretary-Treasurer of the Southern Association for the History of Medicine and Science.

The History of Medicine, a well-attended and much-loved event, was initiated by Martin Dalton and Bruce Innes. It features talks from staff, community physicians, residents and medical students. It is a non-CME event.
